

CMC Markets Connect extends distribution with Integral partnership

London, February 16th, 2022 – CMC Markets Connect, a leading global provider of institutional trading and technology solutions, has today announced a distribution agreement with Integral. Acknowledged as the world’s most advanced technology provider of cloud-based eFX workflow solutions, the award-winning platform brings together a wide variety of liquidity providers into a single, integrated network.

CMC Markets will be distributing its Spot FX and Indices, Treasuries and Commodity CFDs including over 12,000 CFDs covering a range of single stocks and ETFs. Integral clients will have the ability to access pricing as well as execute trades.

Richard Elston, Group Head of Institutional at CMC Markets Connect, commented: “The partnership with Integral is the latest step in our mission to continue extending our institutional reach. By leveraging the network of a recognised industry leader, we’re making our pricing and liquidity available to an even wider audience, whilst our single stock CFD offering truly strengthens the wider Integral offering.”

Harpal Sandhu, CEO of Integral, commented: “By continuing to include more high-quality liquidity providers in the network, we ensure that our clients are consistently receiving a quality service across all market conditions. Our recently launched CFD Prime service is the latest innovation improving the trading experiences of our clients.”

In recent years, CFDs have been seen as an increasingly flexible tool for clients looking to gain long or short exposure to single stocks. This has resulted in CMC Markets rapidly expanding the range of instruments it offers within the asset class, including equities on 23 global markets.
