

Integral Finishes Strong

Monthly volumes grow 18.3% compared to December 2017

Average daily volumes (ADV) totaled $38.7 billion

PALO ALTO, California (January 3, 2019) – Integral (www.integral.com), the technology partner trusted by leading banks, brokers, and asset managers to help them outperform their competition in the foreign exchange market, reported today average daily volumes (ADV) across Integral platforms totaled $38.7 billion in December 2018. This represents an increase of 1% compared to November 2018, and 18.3% increase compared to the same period in 2017.

“Integral and our clients have had a tremendous year, and we are well positioned for continued growth in 2019,” said Harpal Sandhu, CEO of Integral. “Our success is a function of our continuous investment in our technology, our customer relationships, and our team. We are dedicated to delivering the best FX solutions to our customers around the world.”

Highlights from 2018 include:

- Fundamental patent for combining limit orders and request for quote liquidity in a consolidated book
- Expansion of Integral platform to enable MiFID II compliance including Integral MTF, our registered Multilateral Trading Facility built on the OCX platform
- Addition of industry leading customers MOEX and Mint Exchange
- Strategic $15M Investment from Morgan Stanley
- Hiring of veteran executives Lars Oleson as Head of EMEA and Gavin Bambury as CTO
- Introduction of fixed monthly license fee model. Eliminates brokerage fees for technology customers

No other platform reaches as many, as varied, and as comprehensive a set of FX products and participants as Integral OCX™. Banks, brokers, and asset managers now share direct access to OCX and use this unique liquidity to win market share from their competitors.

OCX is directly cross connected with more than 250 liquidity sources supplying more than 3,000 market making streams in NY4, LD4, and TY3. OCX’s award-winning advanced market design delivers the ultimate in execution performance by combining resting limit orders, market-making streams, and midpoint interest in a single integrated high-performance venue.
